Book Launch: Design Isolate

Australian Design Centre is delighted to invite you to the launch of the book
Design Isolate: Creative Resilience in a Pandemic

Thursday 9 November, 6-8pm
Australian Design Centre
113-115 William Street, Darlinghurst

This book celebrates the 2020 project contributed to by 60 creative practitioners documenting their time through the pandemic. This project was conceived by Lisa Cahill to keep our spirits up through the first national lockdown.

The book was designed by Stephen Goddard with text by Lisa Cahill, Stephen Goddard and Melinda Young.

Designers and creative thinkers were invited by Australian Design Centre to capture their thoughts in sketches, diagrams, drawings, text or collage on COVID-19 and isolation.

To read someone's journal is a privilege. Sometimes done in secret, without permission, or long after a person has gone, this is a rare insight into the very recent thoughts of designers, makers, artists, architects as they lived alongside all of us through the tumultuous year that was 2020.

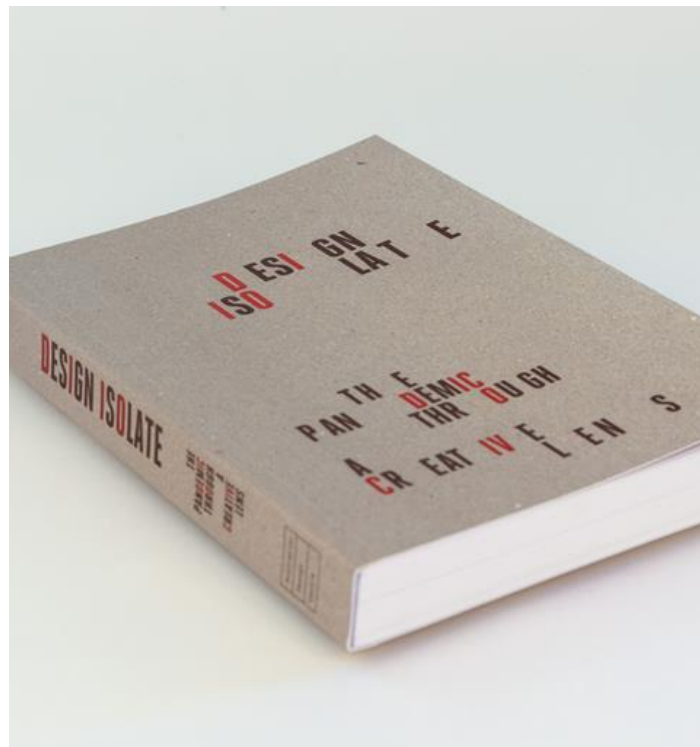

Design Isolate shows us the generosity of spirit in these creative people. It shows us how creatively confident we are in this country and how much our creative community gives so that each of us can lead richer, more fulfilled lives.

Acknowledgement of Country

Australian Design Centre is proud to be a creative place located on Gadigal Country.

We acknowledge and pay our respects to the Traditional Owners, the Gadigal People, and to Elders past and present.

As an arts organisation with national connections, we also pay our respects to all First Peoples across the country.

We recognise Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander culture as the oldest continuing culture in the world. We celebrate the diversity of language, culture, custom, ceremony and knowledge (Lore) of First Peoples as Traditional Owners, custodians and communities with an ongoing connection across land, sea and waterways.

We acknowledge that the lands on which we live and work are unceded – always was, always will be, Aboriginal Land.

About Australian Design Centre

Established in 1964, Australian Design Centre is an independent impact organisation based in Sydney. We create opportunities for people to engage with design, craft and creativity through dynamic and high-quality national touring exhibitions, publishing, digital and educational activities.

We ignite creativity and innovative ideas through:
Exhibitions – Showcasing the best making and design by Australian creators.

Touring – Bringing the power of making and design to new audiences across Australia.

Learning – Inspiring Australians to use design to transform their future.

Australian Design Centre is supported by the generosity of our partners and donors, the Visual Arts and Craft Strategy, an initiative of the Australian, State and Territory Governments, the New South Wales Government through Create NSW, the Australian Government through the Australia Council, its arts funding and advisory body, and the City of Sydney.

Australian Design Centre is a member of Australian Craft and Design Centres network, Australian Museum and Galleries Association, Arts Law, NAVA, Regional and Public Galleries NSW and the Sydney Culture Network.
