

Sydney Craft Week

Entries Extended!

Sydney Craft Week entries extended, apply by Wednesday 28 June 2023

We wanted to give you some extra days to apply for Sydney Craft Week 2023, so we've extended the deadline for you!

Lots of your entries are rolling in, so please keep them coming and join the community for this annual city-wide festival celebrating all things craft.

This year's festival theme is 'Time': the time it takes to make, to learn a skill, to understand materials and to build a practice as well as the timeless quality of handmade work — and we would love for your event to reflect this theme in any way, shape, or form.

Submit your exhibitions, talks, workshops, markets, retail events, open studios, installations, or you may host something on an online platform or as an experience.

We acknowledge that the lands on which we live and work are unceded – always was, always will be, Aboriginal Land.
