Celebrating clay in all its wonderful forms

Showcasing a mix of beautiful tableware for everyday use, to unique & one-off sculptural pieces for sale — Sydney Ceramics Market has curated more than 90 ceramic artists and makers under one roof.

SEE THE LINEUP

Conversation Series, presented by ADC

Join us for a series of talks hosted by Australian Design Centre's Lisa Cahill for the Sydney Craft Week Festival.

Hear about the history of ceramics with Glenn Barkley (ceramic artist, curator and author of Ceramics: An Atlas of Forms) and other experts on where and how you can learn ceramics, how you can style ceramics in your home and how to start a ceramics collection.

Talks start at 11:30, 12:30, 2:00 and 2:30 alongside the market.

Wheel-throwing Demonstrations

Inner West maker and educator Ciane Brewster of Glost Studios will be set up with her potters wheel, demonstrating different throwing techniques using Keane Ceramics clay — who will also be present on the day and selling sample kits of some of their more unique clay bodies to take home and try!

Sydney Craft Week Festival 2023

Full program is now live

The Sydney Craft Week Festival is a city-wide festival of making held each year in October, presenting the latest in contemporary craft as well as offering amazing opportunities to learn new skills in workshops and buy from local artists.

Acknowledgement of Country

Australian Design Centre is proud to be a creative place located on Gadigal Country.

We acknowledge and pay our respects to the Traditional Owners, the Gadigal People, and to Elders past and present.

As an arts organisation with national connections, we also pay our respects to all First Peoples across the country.

We recognise Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander culture as the oldest continuing culture in the world. We celebrate the diversity of language, culture, custom, ceremony and knowledge (Lore) of First Peoples as Traditional Owners, custodians and communities with an ongoing connection across land, sea and waterways.

We acknowledge that the lands on which we live and work are unceded – always was, always will be, Aboriginal Land.

About Australian Design Centre

Established in 1964, Australian Design Centre is an independent impact organisation based in Sydney. We create opportunities for people to engage with design, craft and creativity through dynamic and high-quality national touring exhibitions, publishing, digital and educational activities.

We ignite creativity and innovative ideas through:

Exhibitions – Showcasing the best making and design by Australian creators.

Touring – Bringing the power of making and design to new audiences across Australia.

Learning – Inspiring Australians to use design to transform their future.

Australian Design Centre is supported by the generosity of our partners and donors, the Visual Arts and Craft Strategy, an initiative of the Australian, State and Territory Governments, the New South Wales Government through Create NSW, the Australian Government through the Australia Council, its arts funding and advisory body, and the City of Sydney.

Australian Design Centre is a member of Australian Craft and Design Centres network, Australian Museum and Galleries Association, Arts Law, NAVA, Regional and Public Galleries NSW and the Sydney Culture Network.
